SmAsh thE miRROR THEATRE WORKSHOP

Theatre is pure action which obey to rules

Rules you decide, rules I decide, rules we decide together to be able to play.

The game is dangerous . The body is awake and our intellectual safe rules doesn't work with it. We maybe believe in those rules but several times the only possible personal choice is to break them.

To be a person, to act, to make the difference <between you and the door you'll open entering into OUR theatre space> you have to change.

you'll impress yourself as a shape to everybody and change them <us> too.

Action necessarily change you through every concrete experience.

Every metamorphosis is deeply revolutionary

The <story> has always at list 2 different points of view

Jus to begin to play we propose you a double sight of human relation in order to prove we are maybe wrong and the opposition doesn't exist

the first is Each other : It represents the simple meeting, encounter between two person, without any cultural code or behaviour filter. The qualities of this meeting are: discovery, listening, fear, trust and hope. This is a shapeless, non verbal relation.

the second is World Wide WeB and it's the whole amount of links between people, the net of society's boundaries. In this kind of relation between people hierarchy_ family_ religion_ power_ law_ political choices_ education play a giant role.

The space. Theatre, this is the place in which we all will be acting/playing seriousness of babies during games.

You always decide from which side, which place you'll enter and discover every times a way to live the place differently in order to make it different.

Aims.

_Becoming natural and confident into the group

_not to judge nor the others neither yourself

_Getting to know each others through different channels: body language, word games

_To approach the theme of the human being connected with all the others into the global/European community net _build a group atmosphere and play with it _thinking with the senses feeling with the bodymind

_finding relax and chill out with trust into a parallel world with very different rules which we will decide together
